

PBIDA's 41st Annual Fall Conference in Conjunction with the Pennsylvania Council for Exceptional Children

Promoting Resilience in All Learners

Friday, October 18 & Saturday, October 19, 2019

Philadelphia Marriott West
111 Crawford Avenue, West Conshohocken, PA 19428

Two of Pennsylvania's premier organizations providing information for supporting students with diverse needs have collaborated to present an outstanding opportunity for teachers, school administrators, parents, psychologists, speech and language pathologists, tutors, pre-service teachers, attorneys, and advocates.

The Pennsylvania Council for Exceptional Children (PACEC) is a professional association of educators dedicated to advancing the success of children with exceptionalities through advocacy, standards, and professional development.

Options for attendance include Friday only, Saturday only, Friday full day with Saturday a.m., or two full days. The Friday night awards dinner and speech can be purchased as an addition to any option.

To receive the most information and best value, attend both days.
Add Friday night's dinner and presentation for the full experience.

Reading and Trauma – How Do They Fit Together?

With recent and important focus on trauma and social-emotional learning, where do reading and language fit? Right in the middle of everything, where they have always been. Learn why our response to trauma and our efforts to improve social-emotional learning must incorporate language and literacy, or we'll always come up short.

Day 2: Saturday, October 19, 2019 PBIDA's 41st Annual Fall Conference

Reading and the Road to Resiliency
